

INTERNATIONAL AND LOCAL LINE-UP OF
EXPERTS IN TRAVEL
AND TROPICAL MEDICINE

THE 4TH ANNUAL SOUTHERN CROSS TRAVEL MEDICINE CONFERENCE GLOBAL INNOVATIONS IN TRAVEL MEDICINE

Friday 6 - Sunday 8 September 2019

PARKROYAL, Darling Harbour, 150 Day Street, Sydney

Join the brightest minds in Travel
Medicine at the 4TH ANNUAL SOUTHERN CROSS TRAVEL MEDICINE CONFERENCE

STIMULATING, SUCCINCT AND NOVEL SESSIONS COVERING A RANGE OF IMPORTANT TRAVEL AND TROPICAL MEDICINE TOPICS, INCLUDING:

- Rabid Rampant Rabies;
- Dengue, Zika, Chikungunya in Pregnant Travellers;
- Vaccination and limits of immune system;
- Tick borne disease - On the way back;
- Neglected Tropical Diseases and the Traveller; and
- Malaria chemoprophylaxis-Tafenoquine and more...

Please note: Workshop places are limited.

FEATURING TWO NEW WORKSHOPS

WORKSHOPS

ALL
WORKSHOPS ARE INCLUDED IN FULL
CONFERENCE
REGISTRATION OR AVAILABLE AS WORKSHOP-ONLY
TICKET

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND

WORKSHOPS

THE PRACTICE OF TRAVEL MEDICINE

ONEHEALTH WORKSHOP ON ZOO NOTIC DISEASES

YELLOW FEVER

* Allocated 30 Category 2 points (Activity No.167311) in the RACGP QI&CPD Program for the 2017-2019 triennium.

*CME endorsed - Southern Cross Travel Medicine James Cook University endorsed by The Royal New Zealand College of General Practitioners (RNZCGP), approved for up to 10 CME credits for the General Practice Educational Programme and Continuing Professional Development purposes.

TO VIEW THE FULL PROGRAM,
WORKSHOP OR EVENT DETAILS,
VISIT SCTRAVELMEDCONFERENCE.COM

For enquiries please contact ACTM on
(07) 3872 2246 or E: j.burgess@amaq.com.au