THE AUSTRALASIAN COLLEGE OF TROPICAL MEDICINE

ACTM is the leading organisation in the Australasian region representing
Tropical & Travel Medicine Professionals

The College promotes the highest ethical and professional standards through education and information. It has both regional and global interests with more than 600 members coming from about 30 countries around the World and maintains links to three international organisations working in tropical medicine.

Aims/Vision

The College is committed to the development of tropical medicine and is working with professionals to help manage the global burden of tropical disease and injury through networking, research and development.

Annual Conference

ACTM's annual conference is renowned for featuring local and international speakers, highlighting research and fostering global collaboration in tropical and travel medicine.
